OTHER CUISINES

A HPY Restaurant is a business that prepares and sells cooked food to the public. Customers usually sit at tables to eat, and workers bring the food to them.

How Restaurants Work

- Staff: Cooks make the food, and servers bring it to the tables.
- Menus: A list that shows what food and drinks you can buy.
- Payment: You pay money for the meal after you finish eating.
- User friendly

Common Types

- Fast Food: Places like McDonald's where food is cheap and made very fast.
- Fine Dining: Very nice places with expensive food and strict rules.
- Cafes: Small, simple shops that sell coffee, tea, and light snacks.
